

Here is an opportunity for you to start your own special IFG tradition. Choose an activity for your Final Fling Night that is specific to your area and the culture that you have built up in your Unit over the year.

Invite the girls' families.

Ideas:

- We always go and have a bonfire up at Smith's farm for our Final Fling
- We always have a picnic tea on the beach for our Final Fling
- We always have a pool party at Clarke's for our Final Fling
- We always have a barbeque at Central Park for our Final Fling

(If this venue doesn't turn out to work well, next year you can start a whole new tradition.)

Prepare a special space at the site where you can finish the evening with a quiet time, perhaps the singing of a couple of Christmas Carols and then prayers that God will keep them all safe over the holidays.

Present Awards earned and give out any "special awards" that you may wish to introduce.

Coach's Tip:

Let the girls know that they will receive notice of when IFG will recommence after the holidays or you will start receiving phone calls/ texts in the second week of January!
